

What's New at CTC?

CTC Staff in the Spotlight

Annual Stockholder Meeting

The CTC annual meeting was held on July 28th at the Island Hall. Minutes of the meeting and presentations are available on the Stockholder page of the CTC website. The Board presented its recommendation that the company convert to a non-profit 501 (c) (3) corporation. A special stockholder meeting was held on August 25th for a vote on the recommendation. (The meeting was held before this newsletter went to publication—check the CTC website for results of the meeting).

Reminder!

Charging boat fares is allowed on an exception basis. Customers who do not pay the charged fare within 24 hours will be charged the full fare amount for the charged tickets. Customers who do not pay their charges may be denied use of our ferry services.

Thank You!

The Board wishes to extend its thanks to the Directors who left the CTC Board during 2012.

Specs Eaton has spent his career in public education, both as a teacher and an administrator. He is currently a principal at Spruce Mountain High School. Specs has been coming to Chebeague for nearly 20 years. He and his wife Grace built a home here in 2001. He plans to retire on Chebeague. He served two terms on the Board, one as Treasurer.

Gina Ross married Doug Ross in 1981 and moved to the Island. Together they have two children and she has two from a previous marriage. She has four grandchildren and one on the way. Gina participated in many Island organizations and eventually landed a full time job with the United States Post Office, first as a rural route carrier and then Post Master of Chebeague. She retired from the USPS in 2011.

Gina's first introduction to the CTC was as the first female deckhand back in the early 80's. She served on the CTC Board of Directors two separate times, with total time served of eleven years, before retiring in 2012.

Jill Hamilton is the daughter of Wayne and Arlene Dyer and has lived on Chebeague most of her adult life. Jill has two children, She is a commuter, working nights as a nurse at Maine Medical Center. Jill brought to the Board the perspective of a mother of school age children and a commuter. As a commuter who works nights, Jill has a unique perspective on the challenges of trying to live on the Island with a non-standard work schedule.

Lucas Hamilton

Lucas is finishing up his second year as a summer deckhand. He lives on Cousins Island with his parents, Michael and Denise. Lucas is the grandson of Martha and Floyd Hamilton.

Lucas graduated from Yarmouth High School and is a junior at Bard College, majoring in music. He hopes to perform professionally. His first love is the drums (just like his grandfather Floyd) and he plays the guitar. If you have seen Lucas drumming his fingers on the ferry rides, now you know why!

Lucas is also an avid runner. He runs in the Clam Festival race and during our recent charter in Rockland he managed his schedule so he could run in the Lobster Festival race. He and our other summer deckhand, Alex Hensley, are long time friends.

Lucas says he likes his job at CTC because he is outside and he gets to see his grandmother Martha all summer—he stays with her when on duty!

Thanks, Lucas!
