Waived/Reduced Ferry Fees

Companion Travel

Persons traveling to Cousins Island and returning to Chebeague on the same trip to chaperon pets, young children, handicapped, elderly, or ill people may travel at no charge.

Service Animals Service animals (guide dogs, etc.) may travel at no cost.

Funerals and Memorial Services

When the funeral or memorial ceremonies are held on Chebeague Island or are held elsewhere for someone who is to be interred on Chebeague Island, parking fees and boat fares are waived for all attendees on the day of the ceremony. Also, there is no fee for the transportation of the remains. This benefit does not apply to visiting hours or other activities. To qualify for the free service, the service must be registered with the Business Office.

Medical Emergencies

People traveling from Chebeague to the mainland during a medical emergency (rescue) will not be charged a boat fare. Persons accompanying the injured person will also not be charged a boat fare on the trip from Chebeague.

Visiting school children (grades 6-12)

Off- island school children visiting Island children can use a Resident ticket supplied by the Island child's parent or guardian.
